WHAX - experts in handmade luxury goods

WHAX trade Products are designed to be accessible, easily deploy-able and cost effective offering great returns and value plus the confidence in the products you purchase are made to the same exacting standards as all WHAX products.

All our products are hand poured, meaning we are both optimised for efficiency and able to maintain and deliver exacting quality standards.

We work with some of the world's biggest luxury brands and suppliers so producing and delivering exceptional quality products is second nature to us and something we have a tried and tested reputation for.

Our packaging team are highly skilled and attentive, with all products being hand finished.

Every product is finished to your specific requirements where quality control is key.

This attention to detail and pride in workmanship is what stands us apart from our competitors.
